

Position: Primary SEN Teacher

Location: Battersby Street

Start Date: October – January 2025

Hours: Full-time

About the Role

You must be an experienced and passionate SEN Teacher looking to make a real difference in the lives of young children. We are seeking to employ a dedicated Primary SEN Teacher to join our supportive team at The Greens. This role involves working with a small class of Key Stage 1 (KS1) students who have complex Special Educational Needs (SEN) and additional needs, including autism, ADHD, and speech and language difficulties.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver engaging and differentiated lessons tailored to the individual needs of each student.
- Develop and implement Individual Education Plans (IEPs) for students, setting achievable targets and monitoring progress.
- Create a nurturing and inclusive learning environment that fosters students' academic and personal growth.
- Collaborate with teaching assistants, therapists, and external agencies to provide comprehensive support.
- Use a variety of teaching strategies and resources to support the diverse needs of the students.
- Maintain regular communication with parents/carers to keep them informed of their child's progress.
- Foster a positive and supportive classroom atmosphere that encourages student participation and engagement.

Requirements

- Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) and experience in teaching primary-aged children.
- Proven experience working with children with SEN, particularly autism, ADHD, and speech and language difficulties.
- Strong understanding of SEN best practices and strategies.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Patience, empathy, and a positive attitude.
- Ability to work effectively as part of a team and independently.

How to Apply

If you are enthusiastic about this rewarding opportunity and meet the requirements stated above, we would love to hear from you! Please submit your CV and a cover letter outlining your experience and why you are the ideal candidate for this position to melanieentwistle@thegreens-ens.co.uk

Join us in making a difference in the early education and development of children with SEN. We look forward to welcoming you.
